

Investigations Implementation Center

Principal Investigator: Linda Gregg

Funders:

Website: <http://investigations.terc.edu>

The Investigations Implementation Center supports districts and schools working to improve student understanding of and access to mathematics through effective implementation of the Investigations in Number, Data, and Space® K-5 mathematics curriculum. The Center provides professional development, leadership development and technical assistance for teachers and administrators.